FEAST DAYS THIS WEEK

SATURDAY, 21st JUNE
St. Aloysius Gonzaga: Born in the castle of Castiglione, 9th March, 1568; died 21st June, 1591. In 1581 he went with his father to Spain and he and his brother were made pages of James, the son of Philip II. Aloysius distinguished himself, when in Spain, by a public examination not only in philosophy but also in theology, at the University of Alcalá. He made his vows on the 25th November, 1587. In 1591 when in his fourth year of theology, a famine and pestilence broke out in Italy. Though in delicate health, he devoted himself to the care of the sick. He was beatified by Gregory XV in 1621 and canonized by Benedict XIII in 1726. His remains are in the Church of Lapis Lazuli wreathed with festoons of silver. The altar has, for its centre-piece, a large marble relief of the Saint by Le Gros.
